Dear Salem,

I received your e-mail, Thank you.

As Indicated to you in my previous e-mail letter that my leave was an emergency leave for family reasons and I shall be able to return by the end of the month should the situation improved. As per your request we have recently issued an order Memo to all HODs and staff members clarifying the Deputy availability of all management tasks during my absence. I would also would like to inform you that the Deputy/HODs/Investors are all in contact with me sometimes on daily basis for all the issues that require my direction & attention. Furthermore, please feel free to contact me anytime should you need any support or clarifications regarding the free zone matters.

Thank you for your cooperation & understanding

Warm regards,
